Hi, Katie, people out there in the real world think we make a cute couple.
Think of it: we're both close to each other's ages and both own pets or friends in my case.
(Thinking) I can marry Katie and be her hero.
Are we a couple, Ryder? We both love animals, helping others and playing.
(giggles) Maybe we are meant to be, a cute blonde like me and a brave boy like you.
(Thinking) I can marry Ryder and be his wife.
(Together) We can be the greatest couple in the world.
